Gratitude

By: Tripp Martin

We are thankful for the children of the church and for those who take care of them! Twenty years ago, Somchai Segrest started working part-time at Auburn First Baptist Church. He has assisted with childcare on Sundays and during the week. We give thanks for two decades of service to our congregation.

Our ministries, like Conversational English, Connecting Faith and Family, and Sanctuary Choir rehearsal, depend on childcare. We must provide a safe environment for our children, while our parents are gathering elsewhere. While they are at church, our children form important friendships and connections to this place. We are thankful for Somchai's role in this essential ministry of the church!

Somchai not only cares for the children of the church, but also he knows what it means to be a child at Auburn First Baptist Church. His family moved to Auburn when he was young. He spent many years in the Sunday School classes and hallways of Auburn First Baptist Church.

It is fitting that for twenty years he has provided the same support and care for the children of the church as he once received. Somchai knows what it means to be supported and encouraged by this community of faith. We are grateful for his commitment and for how he continues to share this support and encouragement with others.

We prioritize the children of the church, and we appreciate Somchai's reliable dedication and dependable work ethic. We are thankful for his twenty years of service!

If you would like to express your gratitude to Somchai, you can write him a note and mail it to the church office.

Information Meeting

*Ad Hoc Committee for Cultivating Safety
Thursday, August 3, 5:45 p.m., Fellowship Hall*

During the fall of 2022, the Deacons invited the Auburn Police Department to present its active attacker training to our congregation. Following this training, an Ad Hoc Committee for Cultivating Safety, which was formed by the Deacons, has been reviewing options for various safety measures. They have consulted other congregations as well as the police department, developing practical recommendations for our congregation. In the Business Meeting on August 10, the congregation will vote on these recommendations. In order to allow enough time to present them, they will share them in this information meeting. We do not have any current concerns about safety, but we are practicing an abundance of caution as we care for our congregation.

Meals for Tuesday Night Bible Study

The fall semester at Auburn University is fast approaching, and that means college Tuesday night Bible study will be starting soon! Thank you for always supporting our college ministry. This important mission and ministry of our church could not happen without the support of our entire congregation. One of the most meaningful things we do is offer students a meal and opportunity for fellowship to begin each Tuesday night. If you are interested in sponsoring a dinner or preparing a home-cooked meal for our College Tuesday Night Bible Study this fall, please email Laura at laura@auburnfbc.org or call her at 334-233-2267.

AFBC Weekday Parking

As a reminder, weekday parking for Auburn FBC is found in the Gay Street parking lot. The church leases the College Street parking lot to the city during the week. The employees of City Hall use it, and this generates helpful financial resources for our congregation. The parking lot is leased from 8:00 a.m. -5:30 p.m. during the week. There are signs posted, and the city does issue tickets. The church office is unable to negotiate with the city for tickets issued to church members. Remember to park in the Gay Street parking lot during the week. If a church member has a handicapped sticker, he or she can park in the handicap spots in the College Street parking lot during the week. Also, the city vacates the lot when we have funerals, so it is available for general parking during those services.
